

HIGH SCHOOL FOUNDATION PROGRAM

At Young People's Language School, we are committed to providing quality academic English programs. The High School Foundation program for 13 to 19-year-olds encourages students to learn and improve consistently so they can effectively communicate and study in English.

- Students study in intensive courses in the mornings and early afternoons
- The teachers are knowledgeable and friendly, and students improve their English while having a great experience
- Students join activity leaders for fun activities after classes
- Activity leaders are energetic and provide an exciting and safe environment to make new friends and to experience cultural life in Canada
